

morning worship

Welcome to First Baptist Church. We pray that in today's service, God's activity will be very obvious. As God leads, we pray for courage that you would respond to His call!

PREPARE (before the service)

Pray for an attitude of acceptance as you hear the message from our Youth Pastor, Todd Carr

Fools Play – The Tragedy of Saul

1 Samuel 31

02/05/2017 AM

Prepping for success!

- Saul was blessed in his upbringing 1 Samuel 9:2-3
- Saul was picked and chosen by God 1 Samuel 9:16, 10:1
- Saul was equipped by God to become great 1 Samuel 10:6
- Saul was mentored by Samuel. 1 Samuel 9:27, 10:6, 7

Tragic ending of a fool

- The Mayhem vv. 1-3
- The Method vv. 4-6
- The Mutilation vv. 7-10
- The Men vv. 11-13

Acknowledgment of Wrong Direction

- Saul confesses to David how he has lost God's favor
- 1 Samuel 26:20 "I have played the fool."
- Saul knew his poor choices had put him on a track of destruction.

Seven ways we play the fool to our tragedy:

- We play the fool when we say there is a God, but live our lives in a way that says He does not exist. 1 Samuel 26:20
1. When we don't listen to Godly counsel 1 Samuel 13:8-13, 1 Samuel 15: 1-3, 9
 2. Going on a mission before God leads us. 1 Samuel 13: 9-11
 3. Rationalizing that our disobedience is not because of our own selfish desires. 1 Samuel 15: 12-22
 4. When we seek the wisdom of a false god rather than the one true God 1 Samuel 15:22,23 1 Samuel 17
 5. When we let our heart and lives be controlled by jealousy and hatred. 1 Samuel 17:11, 1 Samuel 18:7-8
 6. When we battle against God instead of serving Him. 1 Samuel 20:22
 7. When we care more about what the world thinks, than obeying the Lord. 1 Samuel 15:12, 30; 31:4

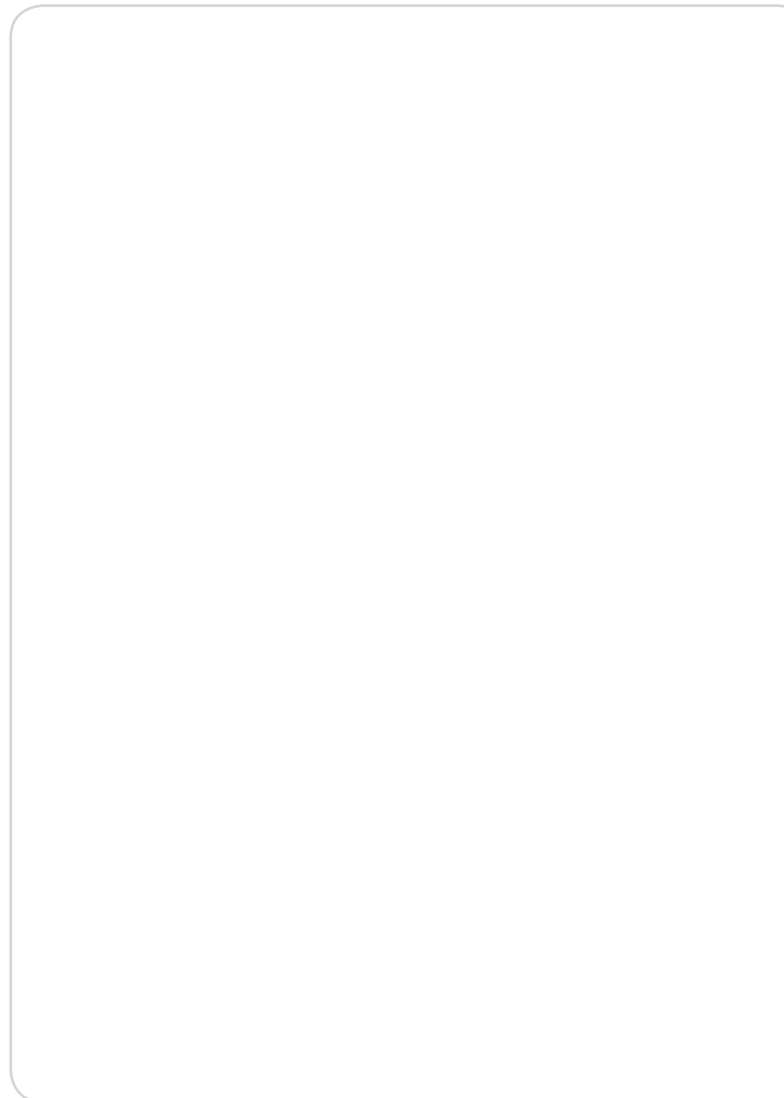

Tragically Saul never called out to God in the end. We are free to make a different choice!
