

morning worship

Welcome to First Baptist Church. We pray that in today's service, God's activity will be very obvious. As God leads, we pray for courage that you would respond to His call!

PREPARE (before the service)

Pray for an attitude of acceptance as you hear the message from our Pastor, Lynn Hyatt.

Where would Jesus be?

Matthew 25:31-40
8/27/2017 A.M.

If Jesus' plan is to use human beings to be His hands, His feet, and His voice, where would He want us to be?

In His _____ v. 34

- Not because of _____
"...prepared for you from the foundation of the world..."
- But because of _____
"...you blessed of My Father..."

Serving _____ vv. 35-36

- In all our serving, it is to be done _____.
- The needy are the _____ of our expressions of love and devotion to Him.

With the _____ vv. 37-40

- Meeting material needs for a _____.
- _____ Jesus' hands and feet for them so that we can be Jesus' voice to them.

PROCEED (as we leave)

What has God said to you through this service?
What actions will you take in your life throughout the next week?
Who will you invite to join you in church next Sunday?

Welcome Guests!

At the conclusion of this morning's service there is a Pastor's reception especially for you hosted by our deacons. This special reception is in Room A101. The Pastor will give instructions at the end of the service. Simply follow him to the reception area! Please stay for this brief time. Preschool and Children's Worship will hold your children for you.

The Gospel Invite

John 1:43-49
8/27/2017 P.M.

In the last few Sunday night services we have had we have examined different ways of sharing our faith with those who do not know Jesus. Tonight we look at probably the least difficult method to point others to Him.

Like Philip, we are called to "_____" Jesus vv. 43-45a

- This means we are to be _____ to Him.
- This means to become _____ Him, to be _____ to Him.
- Therefore, since drawing people _____ was His priority, it must be ours.

We are to _____ what we know and _____ what we can. vv. 45b-46

- We are to tell what we _____ about Him. v. 45b
- We are to _____ to investigate. v. 46

We must _____ in _____, _____ to change lives. vv. 47-49

- When we've done what He has told us to do, we must _____ to Him.
