

morning worship

Welcome to First Baptist Church. We pray that in today's service, God's activity will be very obvious. As God leads, we pray for courage that you would respond to His call!

PREPARE (before the service)

Pray for an attitude of acceptance as you hear the message from our Pastor, Lynn Hyatt.

I Am A Church Member Philippians 2:5-11 10/1/2017 A.M.

"But the strange thing about church membership is that you actually give up your preferences when you join. Don't get me wrong; there may be much about your church that you like a lot. But you are there to meet the needs of others. You are there to serve others. You are there to give. You are there to sacrifice." - Thom Rainer, I Am A Church Member, page 34.

Our model for this kind of living is Jesus, Himself.

He didn't use His _____ for His _____. vv. 5-6

- He willingly laid aside _____.
- If the One Who is God and deserves to be worshipped by all humanity put aside His preferences for the good of others, _____?

He assumed the role of _____. v. 7

- Willing to _____ instead of _____.
- The word "servant" occurs _____ times in the New Testament and "serve" occurs _____ times. Do you think there is some significance to that?

He humbled Himself by doing what was _____.

- Willing to _____.
- Where do we "_____ " in our service to others?

Welcome Guests!

At the conclusion of this morning's service there is a Pastor's reception especially for you hosted by our deacons. This special reception is in Room A101. The Pastor will give instructions at the end of the service. Simply follow him to the reception area! Please stay for this brief time. Preschool and Children's Worship will hold your children for you.
