Romans 12:1-2

7/12/2020

In the first eleven chapters Paul has given us the doctrinal basis to “believe right.” In the remaining chapters he applies that doctrine to show us how to “live right.” Right doctrine should produce right living by God’s standard. These verses begin to show us how we are to live in light of God’s mercy and grace we have experienced. This lifestyle is demonstrated by...

A “_____” to God’s will in how we use our bodies. v. 1

- Demonstrating _____ living by God’s standard.
- Our ultimate goal is always _____ God.
- Honoring God in the way we live is _____.

A transformation of our _____ . v. 2a

- This is a refusal to accept _____ living as normal for believers.
- This is an acceptance of God’s Word as _____ and allowing it to shape our world view and direct our lives.

A proper _____ of and _____ to God’s will.

v. 2b

- Because His will is _____ / _____.
- Because following His will is how we _____ Him.
- Because His will is His _____ _____ for us.
